RIVALS FOR ROSA AND 'BOBBY' LOOM ON THE HORIZON

Some Promising Girl Athletic Performers Make Their Appearance

NEED WATCHING

Selection of Women's Olympic Team Likely to Prove Difficult Task

By LOU E. MARSH

Just blow this one off your dresser—there will be strange faces on the Canadian girls' Olympic team which competes in Amsterdam next July.

Two or three girl athletes around the country who seem to regard their places on the team as already in the burlap are more than likely to be shouldered off the perch by a couple of youngsters who are coming along like the well-known prairie conflagration.

Any time a girls' athletic team for overseas is mentioned the names of Mrs. Rose Grosse O'Neill, Miss Fanny Rosenfeldt, Miss Tony Conacher, Miss Kay Flanagan of Toronto and Miss Ethel Catherwood of Saskatoon are sure to crop up, and Miss Myrtle Cook, Miss Ethel Smith, Miss Jean Bell, Miss Jane Bell of Toronto are not overlooked.

But when the final showdown comes some of those who have outstanding records may even be replaced by youngsters who only broke into the limelight last season.

A Sure

Miss Catherwood, the Saskatoon high jumper, cannot be overlooked unless she breaks down entirely. Her record-breaking performance here last fall make her look like a sure point winner for Canada. In fact Miss Catherwood looks at this distance like the only girl in Canada who is sure of her place. She can run as well as jump, and her performance at the Canadian girls' championship last fall with the javelin entitles her to almost as much credit in the field event as in the jump. Though she had only handled the javelin a half a dozen times before she came here, and had no real coaching at the Canadian record by, she wrecked the Canadian record very favorably with the best marks for women in existence.

Bobby Should Go

Miss Rosenfeldt of Toronto should have no real difficulty in making her place, for she is not only a good sprinter, but she shies a mean discus and she will be needed on the relay team. If Miss Tony Conacher of Toronto would settle down to work on the 800 metres distance she would be sure of her team. At the international meet in England two years ago Miss Conacher, without a bit of training for the distance event, jumped in and chased the English girl champion, an outstanding performer at the distance, as she had never been chased before, and this in spite of the fact that she had turned her ankle rounding the last turn for home. Miss Conacher is good for the relay, too. Mrs. Rosa Grosse O'Neill would be sure of her place on the team as a sprinter if she can regain the form she displayed a year ago. Mrs. O'Neill has not competed in a year and it is rumored that she is through with active participation. If she is, the Canadian team loses a grand athlete. If she isn't through, then she will have to get down to training right away to get back to her form. Mrs. O'Neill has not competed in a year. That is a handicap which will take a lot of careful training to overcome.

Some Sprinters Here

It is in the selection of the sprinters for the 100 metres race and the relay team where the upsets may take place. Miss Cook, Miss Smith, Miss Bell and Miss Flanagan are four local girls who have been at the top of the heap for several seasons but right now there is in Toronto a little novice runner who can trim three out of the four of them, and she is more than likely to beat the fourth when she is taught how to start.

This young lady is Miss 'Babs' Goulding of Branksome Hall, Toronto, a private school for girls. Miss Goulding literally sprang into the limelight at the C.N.E. sports last fall when she filled in a breach and umpired against Miss Ethel Catherwood when she again equaled her own Canadian record. Miss Goulding was not out of the competition until she had equaled the old Canadian record which Miss Catherwood fractured two weeks before the C.N.E. meet.

As a jumper she was as green as a park bench and it was predicted that just as soon as she was taught to leap properly that she would give Miss Catherwood a lot of real competition.

Right after the C.N.E. meet Miss Goulding joined the Canadian Ladies A.C. of Toronto and this winter she had been standing them all on their heads with the speed she is displaying over the boards. Though she does not know how to start she has spotted Miss Flanagan, Miss Smith and Miss Conacher the start in 60 and 75 yard training sprints several times and passed them before the end of the journey. Miss Cook, possibly the fastest breaker among the girl sprinters of Canada, has had her work cut out for her to keep Miss Goulding behind her at the shorter sprints and it is freely predicted that at a hundred yards she could take them all into camp. She seems to be tireless and may develop into a wonder at longer distances, for she has plenty of courage. Give this miss a little more instruction in starting and she will make the best of them hustle to keep her off the Olympic team. And Miss Goulding is not the only newcomer who is going to give the older brigades trouble when the Olympic trials come off if they continue to improve over last summer's showing.

Halifax Candidates

Down at Halifax they have a little sprinter named Miss Phinney who will be a candidate for the 100 metres and the relay. She has shown speed, did time indoors and down around

Halifax they do not see how she can be kept off the team.

A youngster named Jean Thompson came down from Penetang last August for the Canadian championships. Wearing a pair of heavy rubber soled shoes she tramped her way into third place in the sprint against a dozen of the best girl sprinters in Canada. Her success at the championship meet encouraged this youngster. She acquired spiked shoes and a real outfit and reports from the north country are to the effect that she is showing marvelous improvement. Indeed she it already credited with several hundred in 11 1-5 seconds which equals the best time Rosa Grosse ever made, bar once when she was given eleven flat.

And there may be more of these new phenoms to give real competition to the veterans of the game.

The Canadian girls' team will consist of four and possibly six athletes, a combined manager and coach, and possibly a chaperone. The selection will be positively not be sectional. It will be strictly made on the basis of Canadian performances measured against the best the girls selected are likely to meet overseas. A championship meet already scheduled for Halifax next June will precede the selection of the team.

Just why Halifax was selected as the scene of this year's championship meet and Olympic trials is bestowed. The majority of the outstanding girl athletes in Canada are Ontario or western girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew E. Buchanan, of Marion, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Herywood, and Mr. F. Alvin Bassett. Miss Buchanan is a graduate of Bryn Mawr College, Class of 1924. Mr. Bassett is the son of Captain and Mrs. Frank A. Bassett, of Collingwood, Ontario, Canada. No date has been set for the wedding.

Aura Lee Defeats Pats In Senior Hockey Game

Aura Lee took the first of a three-game series with the Toronto Pats for the championship of the senior section of the Toronto Hockey League at Ravina Park last night in a well-played game that held the interest of the complete 60 minutes.

The teams went scoreless until the last few minutes of the final period, when Miss Wilnot came through with the winning tally on a clever solo effort to win the game for her team by a one-goal margin.

The Pats were without the services of two of their star players, mumps stepping in to cause the enforced rest, but it is doubtful if the Pats could have stopped the Aura Lee sextet if at full strength on the clever display of the Reds. Miss Goulding at left wing for the winners, was the individual star of the contest, her talented stickhandling drawing the applause of the fans on several occasions.

Misses Allen and Trinnell were also prominent in the attacks on the Pats' net, and only sensational goaltending on the part of Miss Miller prevented them registering. Misses McLean and Rosenfeld played courageously for the losers, but failed to solve the combined efforts of the Aura Lee team, who worked well together.

Aura Lee—Goal, Wesley; defense, M. Ross and Wilnot; centre, D. Ross; wings, Trinnell and Allen; subs, Grant, Brut, Barr and Goulding.

Pats—Goal, Miller; defense, McKee and McLean; centre, Rosenfeld; wings, Gowland and Brush; subs, Wiseman and Hackett.

For the first time in three years, Aura Lee defeated Pats Ladies at hockey. The score was 1-0 and the game was the best ever played between these two teams. The lone tally of the game came in the last period when Ev. Wilnot, defence, lifted a beautiful long shot which felled Annie Miller completely.

Janet Allan was very prominent in the Aura Lee attack. Babs Goulding was always a menace. Times without number she skated around the entire team but fell down on her shot. Annie Miller in goal for Pats and Athol Wesley for Aura Lee both made some clever saves. Bobby Rosenfeld was skating well, but was not as effective as usual.

Two of Pats' players have fallen victims to the mumps epidemic, Dot Roffy and Peggy Ellis. This meant quite a bit in the pinches.

Pats Defeat Aura Lee In Overtime Contest, 1-0

In one of the best games of hockey between girls' teams ever played in Toronto, Patterson's "Pats" defeated Aura Lee in a women's senior fixture in the T. H.L. at Ravina rink last night. The score was 1 to 0, the lone tally coming after the teams had played ten minutes overtime.

Miss McLean scored the winning goal. The goaltending of both girls who guarded the nets was a feature of the contest. The players displayed plenty of speed and stickhandling ability and the shooting of some of the forwards was on a par with that displayed by many of the men players.

A. McLean, Panny Rosenfeld, A. Hackett and H. Brush starred for the winners in addition to Miss Miller in goal. For the losers Janet Allan, M. Ross, B. Goulding and E. Wilnot were excellent, while Athol Wesley's work in goal was exceptionally good. F. C. Wagborne refereed.

Aura Lee turned the trick last night. They defeated Pats 2-0 at the Ravina in the second game of the final series. The first game also went to them, 1-0, and this gives them the Toronto city championship. Aura Lee have been for years to Pats the hardest obstacle in their annual jog to the Canadian title. This year the Maroon and White have thrown off their jinx and will enter the competition for higher honours in place of Pats.

All hail the Aura Lee girls with enthusiasm. It is well for the game to have the title passed around once in a while, and Pats have monopolized it long enough. Aura Lee this year are a well balanced team, and will be watched with interest for the rest of the season.

To-morrow evening at 7 o'clock at Ravina Rink, Toronto Ladies and Parkdale Ladies will meet in their third final game to battle for the ladies' intermediate city hockey championship. These two smart teams play clever hockey and are evenly balanced, so much so that in the past two final games neither team has scored on the other.

AURA LEE TRIM PATS AND THUS WIN TITLE

Victorious Women Take Match, 2-0, and Cap-ture Series

The championship of the senior women's section of the Toronto Hockey League changed hands for the first time in three years by virtue of Aura Lee Women's victory over Pats last night at Ravina Rink by 2-0. The series, originally to go three games, suddenly terminated with Aura Lee's second win. This gives Aura Lee the series two games to none.

The weaker sex gave a finished display of hockey during the three periods that drew the applause of the fans on numerous occasions. Clever stickhandling and fast skating featured the game of both teams, and only sensational goaltending on the part of Miss Wesley in the Aura Lee net and Miss Miller for the Pats kept the score down.

Miss Goulding, playing left wing for the winners, was the star of the contest, registering both goals for her team and giving Miss Miller many anxious moments all through the game. Misses Allan, Barr and D. Ross completed a clever forward line that shaded the Rosenfeld, Gowland combination for the Pats, the greater part of the game.

The tributory effective "Fanny" Rosenfeld, playing centre for the Pats, found difficulty in piercing the Ross-Willmott defence duo, and when she was successful, Miss Wesley handled her shots with ease. The Pats defense of McLean and McKee formed powerful protection for Miss Miller, but the team play of the winners paved the way for both goals.

Pats—Goal, Miller; defense, McLean and McKee; centre, Rosenfeld; wings, Rosenfeld and Gowland; subs., Brush, Wiseman, Hackett and Ellis.

Aura Lee—Goal, Wesley; defense, M. Ross and Willmott; centre, D. Ross; wings, Barr and Allan; subs., Trinnin, Goulding, Hall and Grant.

Referee—P. C. Wachowicz.

The Aura Lee sextet are worthy champions of the league, and the Pats were quick to congratulate them on their victory.

M'GILL AND WESTERN MEET IN CAGE FINAL

University of Toronto and Queen's Girls Quintets Eliminated

McGill University co-eds and Western University girl students were victorious in the preliminaries of the women's intercollegiate basketball tournament at Hart House last night. The Red and White basketbeters defeated Queen's University by 24-23, and the London sextet defeated University of Toronto by 23-17. The McGill team will play Western this afternoon for the title, and the Tunicolor will meet the Blue and White in an exhibition tilt.

The McGill-Queen's game was by far the better of the two. There was little to choose between the teams, and the issue was in doubt right to the end. Queen's were prominent for their long and accurate passing, while McGill displayed a closer combination. The game was very fast from start to finish, and the advantage the Red and White had over their opponents was due to the latter's "wildness" as the game progressed. Facing a five-point deficit at the opening of the second half, Queen's made a sudden rally to assume the lead. Until the game finished the teams scored practically alternately, with dazzling speed. Misses Carter and MacMartin were best for the winner, accounting for 13 of their team's points.

Miss B. Crank also displayed some very accurate shooting, and her shot put McGill ahead after Queen's had gained their lead in the second half. Miss L. Best starred for Queen's. She scored 9 points, and at all times proved a source of danger to the opposing team. Misses Anglin and Millar also played well for the Tunicolor.

McGill University—N. McMartin, B. Crank, B. Carter, K. Rummels, B. Archdale, E. Johnston and A. Morton. Queen's University—V. Anglin, L. Best, R. Millar, E. Lett, H. Lett, L. Horwood, P. McIntosh and E. Sexton. Referee—Frendersgar.

Aura Lee Girls Win a Hockey Championship

Aura Lee Ladies, after three successive failures in the finals, last night realized their hopes by beating Patterson's Pats 2 to 0 to win the T.H.L. senior championship. Miss Babs Goulding scored both goals, while Miss Doris Ross was also prominent for the winners.

Mar 9, 1923, Globe.

U. of T.-Western game was very disappointing to the local supporters. The Toronto team appeared to suffer from over-anxiety which never entirely wore off, and the absence of Marion Forward from the line-up was felt. Neither team played as good combination as either Queen's or McGill, but Western took advantage of the Blue and White players' "wildness" to good effect and maintained a steady pressure throughout. The first half was more even than the second.

The Toronto co-eds held their opponents to the short end of a 14-13 score at half time, but lost control altogether in the second session and were outscored 15-3. Edith Blackwell was the star of the Toronto team. She scored three clever field baskets and dropped in four foul shots. Misses Buchanan and Weir were also in the limelight for the Blue and White, making many dangerous thrusts at the Western basket, but being outkicked when it came to shooting. Miss J. Walker was the stellar performer for the Londoners, scoring five baskets. Her first basket of the game put Western in the lead at the opening of the second half. Misses Fletcher and Hallett also played well for the visitors.

Western University—M. Fletcher, I. McCracken, A. Hallett, J. Walker, M. Turner, R. Cook, M. Farley, I. Butler, D. Padon and M. Walsor. University of Toronto—E. Blackwell, E. Buchanan, B. McDonald, D. Kerr, E. Weir, G. Keffer, A. Muckle, M. Wilkins and F. Service.

Referee—Webb.

THE MARGARET EATON

Montreal, March 4.—The Margaret Eaton school team from Toronto defeated McGill School of Physical Education at basketball Thursday night 22-20. McGill team was speedy and forwards excellent at long shots. The Margaret Eaton team played well both offensively and defensively. Their passing was excellent. Flora Musgrave covered the floor quickly while Evelyn Davis shot from every angle.

TO STAR OF COME
PAGES OF COME

Last evening an appreciative audience filled the Assembly Hall of Haverhill College, Jarvis Street, to its capacity to witness the demonstration of physical training given under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Pitt, assisted by Miss Eleanor Fletcher. An interesting feature of the demonstration was the presentation for probably the first time in Canada of exercises based on the famous system of Neils Bukh of Olerup, Denmark, with whom Miss Pitt did post-graduate work.

On the conclusion of the program the guests inspected the display of pupils' work from the Domestic Science and the Art Departments, under the direction of Miss Horrell and Miss Peterson, respectively. In the art exhibition special mention might be made of the drawings of Catherine Hambley, Mary Louise Ingalls and Helen Squires of the senior school and that of Betty Crooks, Terry Porter and Margaret Annand of the Junior school. Supper was served in the drawing-rooms. The guests were received by Miss Woods, who wore an exquisite French gown of black transparent velvet with a deep yoke of chiffon and silver trimming. Receiving with her were Miss Dyke, Miss James and Miss Ross. Among those present were: Dr. W. E. Taylor, Principal and Mrs. O'Meara, Mrs. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Smallpeice, Dr. Fletcher, Sir Henry and Lady Pellatt, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. ## AURA LEE WINS BY 2-0 FROM OTTAWA SEXTET

Takes Round and W.O.H.A. Title by 4-0—Athol Wesley Prominent

At the U. of T. Arena on Saturday night, Aura Lee women repeated their 2 to 0 victory over the Ottawa Alerts, and won the W.I.H.A. senior championship and round by 4 to 0. The score fairly indicates the strength of the teams, but had all the Alerts measured up to the ability shown by E. Gooding and S. Moutis and A. Gooding, Ottawa would certainly not have been blanked. As it was, only the steadiness of Athol Wesley in goal for the winners kept the Alerts off the score board. Janet Allan and Babe Goulding bore the brunt of the Aura Lee attack, the former finding the net in the last minute of the first period.

The second period was goalless, and in the third, Molly Trennell scored the final goal of the game for Aura Lee. Ottawa Alerts—W. Moran, goal; J. Notfke and A. Gooding, defense; S. Moutis, D. Hitchman and E. Gooding, forwards; M. Carson, Nuner, M. MacFarlane and B. Moran, subs.

Aura Lee—Athol Wesley, goal; Marge Ross and Evelyn Wilmott, defense; Doris Ross, Molly Trennell and Janet Allan, forwards; Babe Goulding, Betty Barr and Bev. Grant, subs.

SKI-CRAFT BY CHAS. E. DURAND

TRAVERSING

When you come to a slope that you do not want to take straight you can run down across it at an angle to give any speed you desire. This is called traversing. Use the ordinary running position except that your ski will necessarily be a few inches apart depending on the steepness of the slope. Keep most of your weight on the lower ski and always let the upper ski lead. If the snow is hard and the ski tends to slip sideways, bend your ankles toward the hill so that the inside ski edges will bite into the snow.

Women's National Hockey Title.

Not much women's hockey is played in Western Canada on an organized basis. Co-eds of University of Manitoba sought to emulate the example of the men's team of that institution, and win the Dominion championship, and what corresponds to the Allan Cup. At Port Arthur, however, they ran into unexpected strength, and were beaten by the team of that city. The Aura Lee team of Toronto will play at Port Arthur tomorrow and Monday, and, while the title is more or less mythical, the winners will claim the national crown.

HOW TO GET UP

If you happen to fall, as one often does, more than likely your ski may seem to be inextricably tangled. Don't strain and tug at them, but roll over on your back hoisting your legs straight up in the air. Then, if you are on a hillside, let your ski fall at right angles to the fall of the slope so they won't go snooting away from under you as you get up. Always get to your feet by holding your poles in the middle, laying them flat in the snow and getting up over the ski sideways.

DEFENSE STAR

MISS EVELYN WILLMOTT.

PLAY TO EXHAUSTION, BUT AURA LEE WIN

Toronto Girls Outstay Port
Arthur in First Game
Score 3-1

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Port Arthur, April 1.—Playing the first game of the first series ever contested for the national girls' hockey championship, Aura Lee of Toronto, on Saturday evening here, scored three goals to nil against Port Arthur, who had previously become champions of Western Canada by winning from the University of Manitoba after capturing the Thunder Bay honors.

It was a close and very evenly contested game up to the last two minutes. Aura Lee, after nearly fifteen minutes of the second period had gone, with Port Arthur playing shorthanded by had scored on a rush by Miss Willmott. Port Arthur fought back hard and several times seemed about to tie the score, but were ward off by the strong Aura Lee defense.

In the closing five minutes Jean Cameron Port defense, commencing a rush, collapsed, and though revived and continuing in the game she and her teammates were so much exhausted from their exertions that in the closing two minutes the visitors scored twice, one goal a minute and ten seconds from the finish by Betty Barr and the other by Janet Allan, just ten seconds before the close.

At this time the Port team was "all in," while Aura Lee were still going strong. The Ports were the better skaters, but Aura Lee had better team work, better stickhandling and plenty of evidences of more all-round experience, and it was a case of these triumphing when the home team had skated itself into exhaustion. The game was witnessed by three thousand people and proved a highly interesting as well as unique athletic event. The second of the series is billed for Monday evening. Total goals to count and with three of a lead there appears every likelihood of the Toronto girls taking the first national title.

The outstanding players among the visitors were Misses Willmott, Trinnell and Allan. Mabel Sharpe, in goal, was brilliant for the Ports, and Jean Cameron and Pearl Warnica strong on defense.

Aura Lee—A. Qesley, M. Ross, E. Willmott, B. Goulding, M. Trinnell, J. Allan, B. Barr, H. Holly.

Port Arthur—Mabel Sharpe, J. Cameron, P. Warnica, L. McCormick, D. Armstrong, D. Chisamore, H. Maki, A. Gilmshaw.

ON TITLE QUEST

BETTY BARR.

On the assumption that a team's subs should be as good as its regulars, the Aura Lee women's sextet, which plays Port Arthur on Saturday and Monday for the national women's hockey championship, has provided itself with strong relief players, of whom Betty Barr is one. The Toronto team will arrive in Port Arthur tomorrow morning.

All-English Girls Beat U. S. at Field Hockey, 9-1

Special to the Herald Tribune

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Flashing greater speed and better all-around stick-work, the all-English girls' field hockey team opened its American tour to-day by beating the all-American girls at the Merion Cricket Club field, 9 goals to 1.

The British girls led at half-time, 4 to 1, and outclassed the Americans in the last thirty minutes of play. The lone U. S. goal was made by Miss Peggy Waldner, right wing, from Chicago. Miss Jean Brown, all-English right inside, who is 6 feet tall, played a leading role in her team's victory. Nancy Albright and Elaine Last scored three goals each.

The line-up:
Pos. All-English (9). All-American (1).
